I had an amazing stay at Villa Angela and would highly recommend it to anyone looking for a crew house while searching for work in the yachting industry. The house is spacious, comfortable, exceptionally clean and very well managed. I stayed for about six weeks and, after securing a temp job, chose to return because I genuinely didn't want to stay anywhere else. One of the highlights was meeting great people and making lasting friendships. Debbie was absolutely fantastic - always friendly, supportive and willing to go above and beyond to make everyone's stay enjoyable.
